

Starting
August 2020

BROMSGROVE
INTERNATIONAL
SCHOOL THAILAND

The Cambridge IPQ (International Project Qualification).

This additional qualification really helps students stand out from the crowd and is very well-respected by universities worldwide.

A stand alone qualification which supports A-Level and Undergraduate study

Students complete an in depth research project of their choosing

Students develop critical thinking and evaluation skills

The course promotes research skills and independent study which are so important for University

Each student works with staff to develop an innovative and thoughtful research paper

The grade is awarded after Cambridge have examined the work produced.